

Contents

Background

M. Reberopius

What is the problem?

- Rainforests
- Forest dwellers
- Population growth and economies
- Commercial logging 1: tropical timber
- Commercial logging 2: the role of the logging companies
- Commercial hunting
- Laws and their implementation
- Political instability
- Markets

Victims

K. Ammann / WSPA

Animals affected: an overview

- Elephants
- Monkeys
- African Great Apes
- Chimpanzees 1
- Chimpanzees 2
- Bonobos 1
- Bonobos 2
- Gorillas
- Western Gorillas
- Eastern Lowland Gorillas
- Mountain Gorillas
- Orphans
- Disease transmission through bushmeat?
- Ethical issues

Solutions

K.-J. Becker

Solutions: an overview

- Certification for long-term forestry
- Code of conduct for logging concerns
- Sense and nonsense of external funds:
 - Example Dja Wildlife Reserve
- Alternatives

What can zoos do?

View a Bushmeat Video under www.ifaw.org

Collaborators of the exhibition

Abbreviations used in the text

DR Congo	Democratic Republic Congo, formerly Zaire
CA Republic	Central African Republic
PR Congo	People's Republic of Congo
GTZ	German Society for Technical Co-operation with developing countries
EU	European Union
IUCN	International Union for Conservation of Nature
UNESCO	United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
WA	Washington Agreement
CITES	Convention for the International Trade of Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora
FSC	Forest Stewardship Council
EAZA	European Association of Zoos and Aquaria
ECOFAC	Ecosystèmes Forestiers d' Afrique Central
EPP	Europäisches Erhaltungszuchtprogramm (European Breeding Programme)